Long-Term Strategy to Develop the Vietnam Securities Market

The Prime Minister has approved the strategy plan on the development of the Vietnam securities market covering 2011 - 2020. A number of initiatives will be implemented to promote the securities market and enhance market management. The highlights include:

- Revising and improving regulatory framework for securities markets, and issuing a new Securities Law in 2015;
- Introducing the central counterparty clearing model;
- Enhancing the effectiveness of market intermediaries;
- Consolidating the two existing exchanges to a single stock exchange, developing market information technology infrastructure and streamlining markets according to products (equities, bonds and derivatives markets);
- Strengthening the management, supervisory and enforcement functions of the State Securities Commission;
- Developing the bond markets for all different bond types;
- Establishing and developing a derivatives market.
