SIV Authorises the First Public Offering of Common Shares in Dominican Republic

On 8 August 2014, the Superintendencia de Valores (SIV) of Dominican Republic authorised the first public offering of common shares in the country. The approval was awarded to one brokerage house member of the Dominican Republic Stock Exchange (BVRD) which will offer in a single issue 5.26% of its current paid up capital.

The issue date will be determined in the prospectus and the corresponding primary placement notice and the offer will be made through the BVRD.

These shares will be issued in dematerialised form and held and settled at CEVALDOM, Dominican Republic's CSD.

The official press release is available here (in Spanish): SIV Authorises the First Public Offering of Common Share in Dominican Republic.
